Thought for the Week:

"In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering."

.....Pope Benedict XVI

Pope Francis during the Sunday Angelus recalled the feast of the Most Holy Trinity which he said, "makes us contemplate this wonderful mystery of love and light from which we come and to which our earthly journey is guided."

Pope Francis, during the Angelus from St Peter's Square recalled the feast of the Most Holy Trinity this Sunday, describing it as an immense mystery which "exceeds the capacity of our mind, but which speaks to our heart, because we find it enclosed in that expression of Saint John which sums up all of Revelation: "God is love." He went on to say that, insofar as God is love, and the one and only one, there is also communion between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Addressing the faithful, the Pope explained that "it is the Father who gives himself by generating the Son, who in turn gives himself to the Father, and their mutual love is the Holy Spirit, the bond of their unity."

"This mystery of the Trinity has been revealed to us by Jesus himself," emphasized Pope Francis. "He showed us the face of God as the merciful Father; He presented Himself, true man, as the Son of God and the Word of the Father." The Pope continued by saying that Jesus spoke of the Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son, the Spirit of Truth, the Paraclete Spirit, that is, our Consoler and Advocate.

The feast of the Holy Trinity, said Pope Francis, "makes us contemplate this wonderful mystery of love and light from which we come and toward which our earthly journey is guided."

"In the proclamation of the Gospel and in every form of the Christian mission," Pope Francis underlined, we cannot disregard this unity invoked by Jesus; the beauty of the Gospel demands to be lived and witnessed in harmony among us, who are so different."

He continued by saying that this unity, "is essential to the Christian: it is not an attitude, an expression: no. Unity is the only way of life. It is essential, because unity is born of love, of God's mercy, of the justification of Jesus Christ and of the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts."

USCCB — In the midst of recent heightened violence in Jerusalem and Gaza, Bishop David J. Malloy of Rockford, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on International Justice and Peace expressed renewed commitment to the people of the Holy Land and called for prayer. He said: "We are greatly saddened that simmering tensions erupted into violence in the Holy Land this week. It is a cycle we have unfortunately witnessed and spoken out against many times, but because of our great love in Christ Jesus, we remain ever present and close to the people of this land until the Peace of God reigns in its fullness forever.

"We call on all parties to cease the violence. The maiming and killing of one's neighbor only serves to demonize one's adversary and deepen passions that divide and destroy. The Holy Father reminded the world on Sunday, 'Violence begets violence. Enough with the clashes.'

"The U.S. bishops have long called for upholding the Status Quo of the Holy Places, including the Al-Aqsa Compound, the site of much of this week's violence. "We join with the Holy Father, the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem, and other brethren who have called on the international community to intervene in the promotion of a just peace in the Holy City. We especially offer our prayers for all those who rightfully call the Holy Land home, as it is through them any lasting peace will come. May the primary adversaries in this conflict be given the guidance, strength, and courage that only comes from on High to build trust amidst those who are eager for belligerence. With our suffering Lord as our model, we renew our enduring commitment to our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land."
